

China – Dr. Shawn Arthur/Philosophy & Religion/262-4031/arthursd@appstate.edu

Bob White/International Education and Development/262-2811/whitera@appstate.edu

This 3-week program will explore Chinese religions, history, and culture across the southern half of the country. Visiting various temples, museums, and cultural activities will provide historical background, cultural context, and physical reality to the experiential and problem-based learning focus of this course. We will also examine the global impact of Chinese process - how the society works, interacts with outsiders, and is in turn affected by the world.
