Theatre in England, Past & Present. This program will introduce students to medieval, Renaissance, and contemporary theatre in England. Students will: visit medieval and early modern playing spaces and have opportunities to perform and watch scenes from Shakespeare and other playwrights in those spaces; see costumes and other theatre artifacts in museums; watch, discuss and analyze diverse contemporary plays; and participate in text workshops at Shakespeare's Globe Theatre and Royal Court Theatre. Students will prepare for the program by reading several medieval and Renaissance plays and by researching contemporary theatres and playwrights.

May 12 - June 1, 2008. $3,590
